

SPEAKER INFORMATION

Date: Wednesday, November 7, 2018
Event: Advocacy/Government Affairs Topics – Panel Discussion
Time: 10:50 am – 12:00 pm

Stephanie Salmon

Plumbing Manufacturers International (PMI) Government Relations Consultant, Washington D.C.

President – Potomac Government Relations

Phone: 202 452 735

ssalmondc@gmail.com

Stephanie Salmon is president of Potomac Government Relations, a government affairs and public policy firm located on Capitol Hill in Washington, D.C. She has over 25 years of government relations experience and works with clients to represent their policy priorities before the Congress, the Executive Branch and regulatory bodies on issue areas such as manufacturing, environment, water, trade, energy, workforce, tax, and appropriations. She has successfully organized and managed dozens of Government Affairs Advocacy Days and Washington conferences.

Before starting her business in 2013, Ms. Salmon was vice president of government relations at the public relations and government relations firm of Artemis Strategies for three years where she managed the government affairs efforts of three manufacturing trade associations.

From 1998 until June 2010, Ms. Salmon served in a variety of positions for the Washington, DC-based government affairs firm of Waterman & Associates, including vice president of government affairs. She oversaw the government affairs services for several metalworking-related associations.

Ms. Salmon is a member of the Ripon Society, Women in Government Relations, and serves on a number National Association of Manufacturers (NAM) policy committees. Ms. Salmon graduated from the American University with a Bachelor of Arts in international relations, with a concentration in economics and business. A native of Cincinnati, Ohio, Ms. Salmon resides in Arlington, Virginia with her husband and three children.